

visit
MONACO
CONVENTION BUREAU

Monaco digital supplement entitled “Intellectual Capitals: Unexpected Monaco”

The publication features some of the country’s business and academic leaders who share their views on what is special about the Principality of Monaco and why it’s a unique place for business events:

Contributors include:

- Professor Nadir Saoudi, Head of Cardiology Department of the Hospital Center of Monaco
- Professor Gilles Dreyfus, Medical Director of Cardio-Thoracic Centre of Monaco
- Mr. Martin Peronnet, CEO of Monaco Telecom
- Mr Anthony Torriani, CEO of Monaco Asset Management

There is also an introductory message from His Serene Highness the Prince Albert II.

Click here to view: <http://www.xplore4.com/intellectualcapitals/monaco/>

Monaco is definitely the destination for your next event and has won its legitimate place among the major event destinations; it is also a dynamic and diversified economic platform with center of expertise.

Banking & Finance, New Technologies, Healthcare & Sustainability are particularly active in the field of congress & events in our country.

Today, our recognized local leaders are willing to align their interests with those of the organisation of professional events in the Principality.

With a calendar of more than 500 business events, including numerous associative congresses, Monaco is strengthening its position as a destination for business and incentive events and is one of the leaders in the market for value for money. Prices are reasonable and the Principality's image is strong and dynamic.

The Convention Bureau is a department of Monaco Tourist and Convention Authority. Its mission is to promote the Principality of Monaco to all organizers of business groups.

It facilitates the organisation of professional events, thanks to its expertise and knowledge of all the Monegasque players involved.

It acts as a one-stop shop for requests and coordinates and facilitates contact with various establishments.

On behalf of the Prince's Government, and therefore with complete neutrality and free of charge, it offers personalized support to all events organizers in Monaco.

FOLLOW US  @MonacoCVB  Monaco Convention Bureau

WEBSITE : www.monaconventionbureau.com